1. BACKGROUND & OBJECTIVES OF EOI

The Andhra Pradesh Backward Classes Co-operative Finance Corporation (APBCCFC) is engaged in implementing welfare programmes and development schemes to empower the backward classes in the state by improving their productivity and help create additional income for them. As part of this endeavour, the Government of Andhra Pradesh has decided to re-launch the ADARANA Scheme, a flagship scheme for the backward classes. The scheme aims to provide modernized tools to artisans belonging to backward classes and thus contribute to increased income levels. The total budget allocated under the ADARANA scheme is Rs. 750 Cr. Details of ADARANA scheme have been issued through G.O.Ms. 1 Backward Classes Welfare Department dated 10/03/2018. The GO is enclosed at Annexure I of this document.

The VC & MD, APBCCFC invites Suppliers to indicate their interest in supplying tools. Interested Suppliers should provide information as detailed in various sections of this document towards demonstrating their eligibility. The artisans belonging to backward classes in the state are pursuing traditional occupations which are as follows:
